

2012 NASE Succeed Scholarship™ Application

The applicant may apply for this scholarship if he or she meets all of the following eligibility requirements:

- Must be an NASE Member in good standing.
- Dues must be current at the time of application and when the scholarship is funded.

Members who are employees of the NASE, sales associates, field service representatives, or contracted by the NASE are not eligible for this program.

Types of Scholarships

- The NASE will award multiple scholarships of up to $4,000 to business owners pursuing continuing education, and/or training, including seminars, certification and university or college classes.

Selection of Recipients

Criteria used in evaluating applications and awarding scholarships include:

- The potential of the scholarship to satisfy a business need
- The potential impact of the course on overall business growth and success

Succeed Scholarships are awarded at the sole discretion of the NASE. The NASE has the discretion to make no awards or present a higher or lower amount than requested. Decisions of the selection committees are final and are not subject to appeal. No application feedback will be given.

Terms

- Scholarships will be awarded annually and are not renewable.
- The number of awards will be determined by the number of applicants and the funds available.
- Funds are available for courses, seminars, etc., to be completed between January 1, 2013 and January 1, 2014.

The application must illustrate why you are pursuing continuing education and/or training, and how the courses you are seeking funding for will benefit your company and you as the business owner. A complete application, with supporting documents, must be submitted for consideration.

Ensure that your application is complete by including all items listed on the Application Checklist.

Payment of Scholarships and Conditions

If NASE Membership has lapsed or dues are not current, the scholarship will not be funded and will be forfeited. Those receiving a scholarship are not eligible to apply in the next calendar year. Recipients must maintain records showing use of the money. As an additional consideration, recipients of a Succeed Scholarship agree that the NASE has the right to publicize names, business name and hometown of recipients as well as amount awarded. Recipients must also agree to have their photograph taken by the NASE and used for publicity.

Recipients will be notified within 60 days of receipt of application. Scholarships will be funded within 30 days after all signed usage and required regulatory documents are returned to the NASE. Applications and the information received with them will not be returned.

Limits of Liability

The NASE reserves the right to cancel, alter, or discontinue this program at any time without notice. However, any money awarded will be paid. The NASE assumes no liability in connection with a Succeed Scholarship recipient's business.

Program Administration

To assure complete impartiality in selection of winners and to maintain a high level of professionalism, the Succeed Scholarship Program is administered by International Scholarship and Tuition Services, Inc., a firm that specializes in managing sponsored scholarship programs.
